Big Idea: God talking changes my walking.

2 Timothy 3:16-17 (NLT)

¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. ¹⁷ God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work.

Read it.

Reflect on it.

Respond to it.

2 Timothy 4:3-5 (NLT)

³ For a time is coming when people will no longer listen to sound and wholesome teaching. They will follow their own desires and will look for teachers who will tell them whatever their itching ears want to hear. ⁴ They will reject the truth and chase after myths. ⁵ But you should keep a clear mind in every situation. Don't be afraid of suffering for the Lord. Work at telling others the Good News, and fully carry out the ministry God has given you.

GROUPS QUESTIONS:

1. What stood out to you most in this week's message, and why?
2. When you need trustworthy direction or advice, where do you instinctively go first?
3. Read 2 Timothy 3:16–17. How would you describe the difference between knowing what Scripture says and allowing it to actively change the way you live?
4. Scripture is described as teaching, correcting, and training us. Which of those three functions do you find most challenging to receive, and why?
5. Read James 1:22–25. What are some of the common distractions or excuses that keep us from moving from reading the Bible to actually reflecting and responding to it?
6. Why is it often easier to consume information about God than it is to let His truth convict and change our daily habits?
7. Read 2 Timothy 4:3–5. In what ways do you see modern culture (or even Christians) chasing teachings that simply validate personal desires rather than biblical truth?
8. Read John 10:27. What practices help you clearly recognize God's voice through Scripture amidst all the competing noise in your week?
9. What is one specific area in your routine right now where you know God is speaking, and what is one practical step of obedience you need to take in response this week?
